 - ✓ Loss of control over ones life
 - Loss of personal and professional relationships
- To impact the program costs and reduce our Agencies premiums.
 - Sustained claims increase disability related costs and Agency supplemental payment costs
- To impact indirect costs to the Commonwealth and your Agency.
 - ✓ Cost of replacing the injured/ill worker
 - ✓ Cost of hiring temporary employee's
 - ✓ Cost of training new staff
 - Reduced productivity among remaining employee's
 - Poor morale resulting from feelings of not being considered a valued employee

Primary Goals of Return-to-Work:

- Retain our valued, experienced employees
- Provide enhanced benefits to our injured/ill employees
- Safe, timely return of our injured/ill employees back to the work force
- Reduce the costs related to disability
- Reduce lost workdays

Key Components of the Program:

- Initiate a change in how we perceive individuals who have a temporary or permanent impairment, and realize that they can still be productive individuals
- Provide training to supervisors and employees about the program and how to proactively respond to injuries or illness.
- Assist supervisors and agency workers' compensation coordinators learn how to:
 - Communicate with the treating physicians and providing them all the necessary information to assist in returning the employee back to work
 - Maintain continuous communication between the injured/ill employee and the agency to preserve a good working relationship
 - Develop transitional employment duties, which address the employees abilities vs. inabilities and treats returning to work as part of the healing process
